

Graphite on paper work drawn in the seventies about Madrid and, in particular, about Plaza de la Lealtad, located in Paseo del Prado. The composition alternates the bench's horizontal lines in the foreground with the tree's vertical lines. Some more trees, buildings and cars are seen in the distance.

The signature is on the lower right corner and says "A. López Torres. February 1971".

Donated by Antonio López Torres in a public deed, 27.10.78.
