

Small but detailed drawing representing a vineyard near Tomelloso. The vanishing lines precision of this work gives perspective and space to the scene. These directions are in harmony with the horizontal bands of the different fields. The subtle lines and the undefined outlines create an exceptional atmosphere.

The signature is on the lower right part and says "A. López Torres. April 1976".

Donated by Antonio López Torres in a public deed, 14.10.83.
