

Sixth panel from a group of 7 small panels where the main features of his artwork in the last stage of his artistic career can be observed: colour sobriety and cleanliness, interpretation of distance and great atmospheric sense, absence of figures, quiet compositions and a more poetic and lyric sense of a landscape.

There are neither inscriptions nor signatures in any small panel.

Donated by his heirs.